

Cyprus proposal: impact on EU 261 compensation

Analysis of claimable delays under current EU261 rules compared to Cyprus proposal

-87%

87% of all passengers are no longer eligible for the full compensation amount

€380 to €179

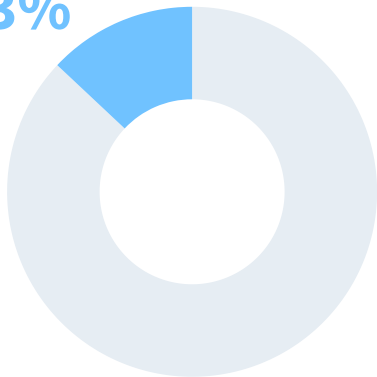

Average claim value per eligible passenger

-53%

Average compensation drops significantly

Impact on EU passengers

13%

● Only 13% of current eligible passenger would still receive full compensation

Average claim value per tier

Passengers receiving reduced compensation per tier

Selection criteria:

- Only delayed flights from 2024 were included
- Only flights falling within scope of EU Regulation 261/2004
- Only flights assessed as claimable based on Lennoc analysis included

Contact: Paul Vaneker
Email: pvaneker@lennoc.com
Phone: +31 (0)88-0066422

